

Ottawa
Asian Heritage Month Society

Presents

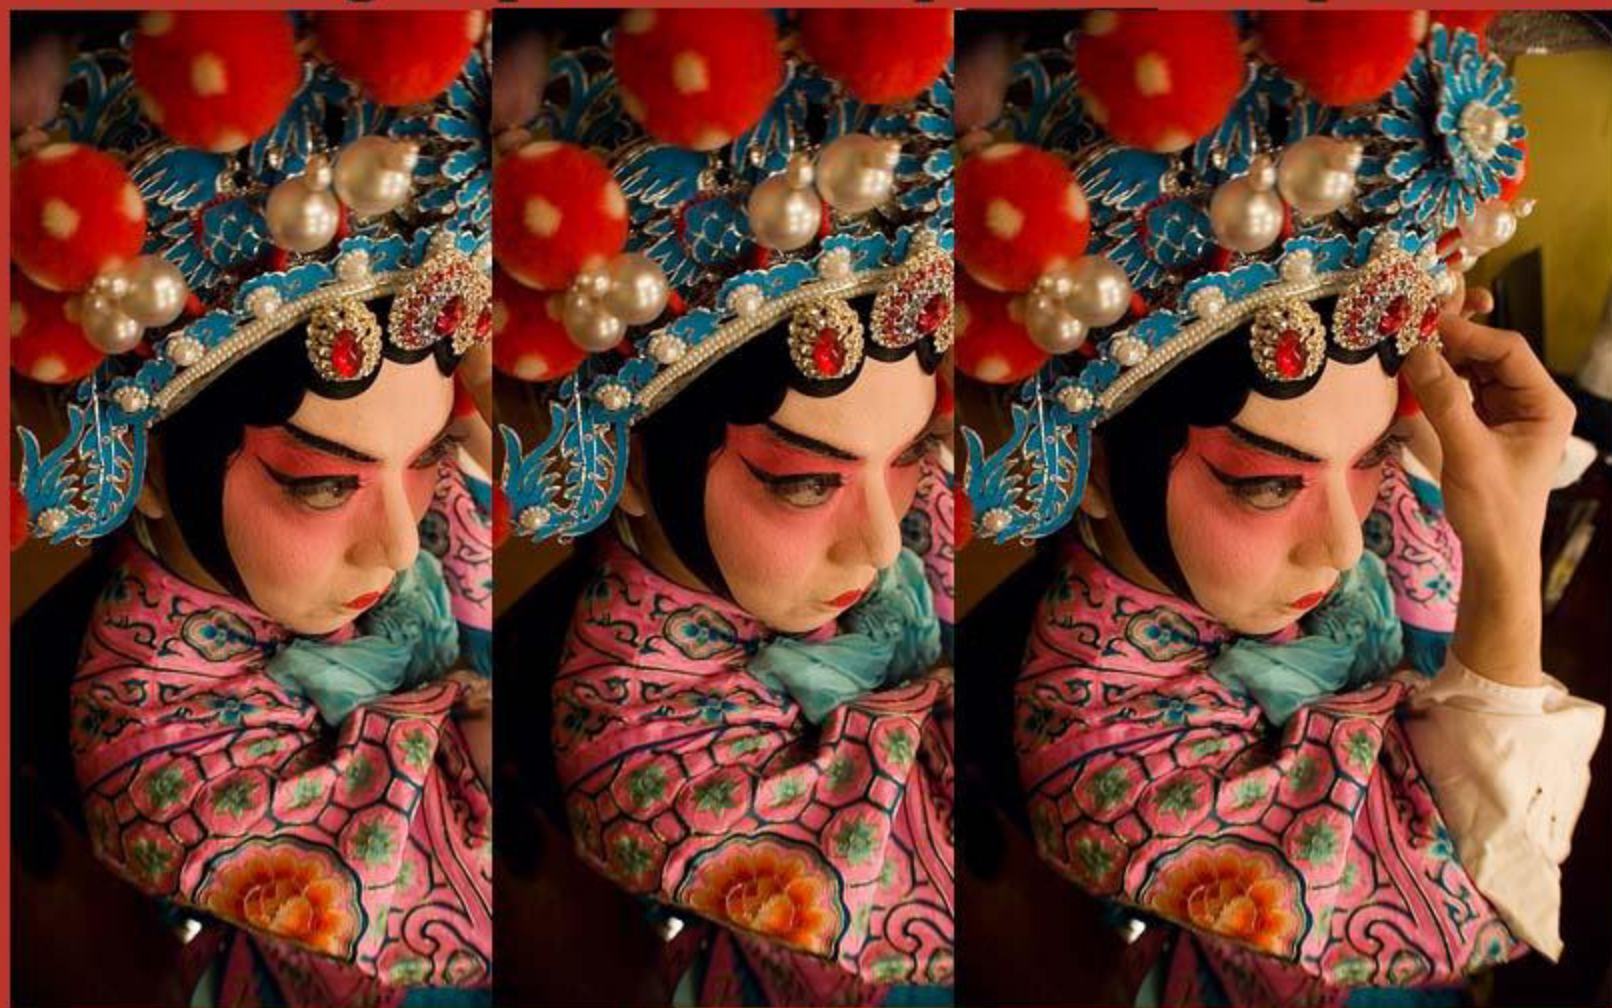

6th Annual Gala Concert

In collaboration with the Canadian Museum of Civilization

Saturday, April 26, 2008 at 7:30 pm

Theatre, Canadian Museum of Civilization, Gatineau

10 artist groups from the pan-Asian spectrum

"Female Warrior" portrayed by William Lau, a renowned actor, dancer and singer who has performed Nationally and Internationally over the past 25 years.

Photo by Owen Wong

Tickets: $20, Museum Box Office, Zenteriors at 459 Sussex Dr., Ottawa Folklore Centre (1111 Bank St.), East Wind (802 Bank St., 361 Richmond Rd.) or Ottawa@AsianHeritageMonth.net

Sponsors: CBC, RBC, City of Ottawa Arts Program, Chinese Canadian Community News, Indonesian Embassy, Japanese Embassy, Pakistani High Commission, Philippine Embassy and Yangtze Restaurant.

www.AsianHeritageMonth.net

East meets West in a cultural fusion that brings together the traditional and the contemporary- featuring many exceptional Canadian performers. The Gala Concert showcases the artistic talents of 10 performing groups from across the pan-Asian spectrum. Performers include: the veteran Chinese Beijing opera singer William Lau portraying the female warrior; the jazzy South Asian sound of guitarist Adam Duncan, accompanied by saxophonist Linsey Wellman and Tabla musician Ravi Singh; the renowned Montreal Er Hu artist, Shen Qi, with the accomplished cellist Luo Di; the Upasana School of Dance, featuring contemporary classical Indian dance; Japanese Soprano Noriko Hashimoto; the Indonesian Gamelan music ensemble with a Javanese dance troupe; traditional Korean dancer Jayoon Jung; the innovative styling of Toronto's Folklorico Filipino Canada Dance Company; Pakistani raag malkauns music ensemble, and Vietnamese singer Ivy O.

Come and experience the colourful sights and incredible sounds that bring Canada's diversity to life on stage!

Presented by the OAHMS and CMC.